This year's event will again feature a beer garden, sponsored by Louie's Tavern, children's activities, and music by a total of 14 acts, both bands and solo acts, both returning favorites and newcomers, as well as a live animal show, and other children's activities! Food trucks and booths will be open both days, and fest and performer merchandise will also be sold.

The Vendor Fair will also take place on Saturday, from 1-6 central, in the park area.

Organizer Carol (Ubelhor) Troesch adds, "Be sure to check out our website (stmeinradrocks.com), as well as our Facebook page for important details, and information on the performers and available food!"

Donations will be accepted for anyone wishing to donate to the cause, with all proceeds benefitting the town museum fund, that will help to preserve the beauty of and history in St. Meinrad, Indiana.
